Our Uniqueness

Martin, Disiere, Jefferson & Wisdom is a dynamic Texas litigation boutique with offices in Houston, Dallas, Austin, and San Antonio. Founded on January 1, 2000, our firm has consistently garnered accolades and recognition for our trial and appellate prowess, setting us apart as attorneys you can truly count on.

What Makes Us Stand Out:

1. Trial Lawyers, Not Just Litigators: At MDJW, we are trial lawyers at heart, not mere "litigators." We relish the opportunity to advocate for our clients in the courtroom, and our love for trying cases shines through in our unwavering commitment to securing the best possible outcomes.
2. Proven Substantive Expertise: Our lawyers are recognized across the state and country for their substantive expertise. We are frequently invited to speak at state and national seminars, sharing our insights on winning trial techniques in our individual practice areas. Additionally, we have authored four legal treatises on different aspects of Texas litigation and law, further establishing our authority in the legal field.
3. Board-Certified Excellence: Several of our lawyers are Board Certified by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization in their respective disciplines, showcasing their dedication to achieving the highest standards of excellence in their practice areas.
4. Reputation and Respect: Our success in trial and appellate work has earned us the respect of judges, mediators, and the Texas legal community. When it comes to civil litigation, our reputation as effective and fearless advocates speaks for itself.
5. Results-Driven Advocacy: While many cases settle before trial, we believe that a strong reputation as capable trial lawyers is essential for achieving the best results for our clients. Our long list of impressive trial and appellate outcomes, coupled with the satisfaction of our clients, attests to our unwavering dedication to their success.

At Martin, Disiere, Jefferson & Wisdom, our passion for trial work, coupled with our substantive expertise, empowers us to be attorneys you can genuinely count on.
