

Successes

What matters to you matters to us. We are known to be committed, tenacious, creative, persistent, detail-oriented, responsive—and always doing what’s best for the client and our colleagues. Whether handling complex insurance litigation, high-stakes business disputes, sensitive workplace issues, or appellate matters, our attorneys work passionately to deliver optimal outcomes across practice areas. In all engagements, excellence and client service drive our unwavering pursuit of success.

Count on local roots and nationwide reach

With deep connections across the legal community, we have a proven track record of trying cases successfully nationwide. Our capabilities span the country to meet client needs.

Our entire firm is devoted to securing the best possible results for every client. With customized teams assembled to meet your unique needs, we bring tenacious commitment, creative problem-solving, dogged persistence, meticulous attention to detail, and responsive communication to each engagement. We take pride in doing what’s right - for our clients, our colleagues, and the broader community.

Count on us as your trusted advisors

We take a holistic approach to understanding your unique situation and goals. Our objective counsel helps you make informed decisions to achieve the best possible outcome.